

- A king who ruled more out of impulse and fear than wisdom
- A queen who would not be manipulated but was demoted
- An idea that no one knew how important it would be
- A threat that put everything good at risk

Crisis is really God's hand at work in the human tensions

- Haman – a man fueled by a vindictive spirit
- Esther is caught between an unstable king and the man she most respected
- God's sovereignty is revealed in His timing
 - A delay is never an accident with God
 - The pieces all fit together in God's plan

The sovereign hand of God runs history
